

“A little over a year ago, a set of unexpected events took place in my life that I was not prepared emotionally to deal with on my own. I never could have prepared for the sickening fear that took hold of me and keeps me holding my breath even now -- when it became almost a desperation to keep my children and myself safe from the same person that I once loved and held dear. It is a feeling that cannot really ever be described with words.

I say all of this because I know I probably would not have finished this process without you and your team. I thank InMotion for all of the amazing work they do on a daily basis and for all of the women whose lives they impact, without them I would not have ever met you and the other Kasowitz attorneys.

Since meeting you and really working closely with you during the first part of this case, you made me feel supported, protected, and you gave me strength to face the challenge. It was so important to me that you always kept me sheltered in court and outside the court room from the penetrating and uncomfortable stares from the opposing party, which I knew was a method of intimidation.

For every word of encouragement and for all of your support during this difficult and long process, thank you.

I am so glad that it is finally over and I cannot say how pleased I am with the results. I am crossing my fingers the order of protection will be obeyed, although sometimes I doubt it will -- I am not going to back down now.

You were wonderful to work with and were super patient with me when my stress level went up. I will never forget how attentive you were on the case. Everything was always explained clearly and I was always comfortable with the outcome of the case. So, it is kind of sad to say goodbye.

My deepest and most sincere gratitude for everything. It has been an absolute pleasure.”
